WOLFE | AURYN 14 CHAKRAS

“Whatever thou resolvest to do, do it quickly. Defer not till the evening what the morning may accomplish.” — Unto Thee I Grant

Below are the tones to be used. These remain constant and are not bound to time, but to sequence. Each tone is intoned in order, allowing the system to stabilize through repetition.

There are fourteen in total, forming a complete progression from foundation to source. These tones are not symbolic—they are functional. Each activates a corresponding center within the body, organizing perception, stabilizing internal structure, and aligning the individual with a unified field.

Understanding is not required at the outset. The effects emerge through practice. What matters is precision, consistency, and direct experience. Over time, the system reveals itself through the changes it produces within you and around you.

ᛟ

Sincerely, The Archon Magus of the Magnum
